

Redwood Day School Parent Association

Mission

The Redwood Day School Parents' Association (RDSPA) is a parent-run organization that enriches the School experience by building community among parents, faculty and administration. The Association serves the needs of the parent community while supporting the School. Through its work the RDSPA:

- Promotes volunteer opportunities, parent education programs, and social events that foster community and encourage participation
- Sponsors fundraising initiatives that augment the School's resources
- Supports the School's mission, philosophy and strategic plan

Vision

The RDSPA seeks to:

- Build and sustain positive and productive relationships within the Association and with the greater School community
- Cultivate a sense of ownership among parents by maintaining a diverse board and an active membership which is reflective of the community
- Organize and govern in a manner that facilitates healthy interactions and outcomes

Values

The RDSPA believes that:

- The Association has a vital role in supporting a quality educational experience for our children
- The School community is strengthened and enriched by a high level of volunteerism
- Every parent brings something of value to the RDSPA community
- A shared understanding of RDSPA's goals and operations creates a spirit of cooperation and unity
- As the community evolves, the RDSPA must be flexible, responsive and proactive
